

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. HONOLULU, MA.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Me.
2. SHELBYVILLE, KY.—"I suffered from a severe female trouble. My right side hurt me badly—it was finally decided that I must be operated upon. When my husband learned this he got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking it a few days I got better and continued to improve until I am now well."—Mrs. MOLLIE SMITH, R.F.D., Shelbyville, Ky.
3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—Mrs. ADA WILZ, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.
4. DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2437 East William Street, Decatur, Ill.
5. CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years my side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFITH, 1585 Constant St., Cleveland, O.

The R. W. Andersons and Miss Young Return.

After having spent a most delightful summer touring California, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Anderson and Miss Bertha Young, a sister of Mrs. Anderson, returned to Honolulu in the Matsonia yesterday. The Andersons have been in Southern California, where they were entertained extensively, though Miss Young spent most of her time in Oakland, where she has two sisters. Mrs. Dredge and Mrs. McNab. During her mainland visit Miss Young was injured in an auto accident, but after a few weeks in the hospital she was able again to take her place in society in the bay cities.

Miss Anderson is one of the very popular members of the younger set and her friends were indeed glad to welcome her back to Honolulu.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Baldwin.

For Major and Mrs. Cheatham.

Friends of Maj. and Mrs. Frank Cheatham are planning entertainments for them on their arrival in San Francisco. They will reach this city shortly from Honolulu and will be stationed at Fort Mason in the attractive quarters now occupied by Maj. and Mrs. William H. Bertch, who will move to the Presidio.—San Francisco Chronicle.

After an absence of several years Lester Marks, the son of Mrs. Louis Marks, returned to Honolulu yesterday. Mr. Marks has been in the East studying at Cornell university and he received his diploma this spring. On his way home he stopped in Berkeley for a short time to visit his sister, Miss Ramona Marks, who is a sophomore at the University of California.

Mrs. J. A. Gilman and her daughter, Miss Cordelia Gilman, were among the homecoming passengers in the Matsonia yesterday. Mrs. Gilman and her daughter have been living in Berkeley for the last year or more, though the former returned here a few months ago to be present at the marriage of her youngest daughter, Miss Marjorie, to Percy Nottage.

Francis Cooper, the youngest son of Judge and Mrs. Henry E. Cooper of this city, arrived in the Matsonia yesterday morning after completing a course in one of the well known business colleges of the west. Mr. Cooper was named by some of his fellow students, "Prince Francis of Palmyra," and the name stuck.

Mrs. Andrew Fuller and her son, Mr. George Fuller, who have spent the last six weeks at the exposition, were among the homecoming passengers in the Matsonia. During their stay on the mainland both Mrs. Fuller and her son were entertained by other islanders, who are sojourning in the states.

Miss Irene Aiken of Maui, who, with her brother, Dr. George Aiken, has been visiting interesting places in California, was a returning passenger in the Matsonia. Dr. Aiken and his sister will remain in Honolulu a few days and then will return to their home on Maui.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kahn were among the incoming passengers in the Matsonia. Mrs. Kahn was formerly Miss Alexander Strauch, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. R. Strauch of this city. She and her husband will remain here for six weeks.

Mrs. W. B. Thompson and Miss Margaret Thompson of New York arrived on the Matsonia yesterday morning and are domiciled at the Moana hotel. They expect to remain in Honolulu for some weeks.

Word was received from Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder yesterday that they will leave San Francisco October 20. The Wilders have been in California since June and their return will be welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley expect to leave for San Francisco in the Matsonia next week for a short visit with Mr. Ashley's mother, Mrs. George Ashley, who, with her three daughters, is in Berkeley.

Mr. Harry Morehead of Hilo arrived in the Matsonia yesterday en route
